"When Women Love."
 "When Women Love," is such sweet remembrance to us all, that the play of that title which Messrs. Spitz and Nason present is placed on a pinnacle of itself and insures to the public one of those rare gems that will live forever. The author is our own citizen, William W. Lapoint. The play is one that does not depend upon the lavish scenic display that has been provided for its presentation. It is strong, convincing and well acted.
